

Resources for Storm Survivors

American Red Cross

www.redcross.org

(800) 438-4636

The American Red Cross responds to immediate needs for safety, food and housing. It also provides information about other resources and services.

Federal Emergency Management Agency

<http://www.fema.gov/>

(800) 621-FEMA (3362)

Storm survivors may be eligible for a variety of Federal assistance in disaster areas. Contact FEMA to apply or to learn more.

USA.gov

<https://www.usa.gov/disasters-and-emergencies>

(800) 333-4636

This is the primary resource for information about Federal, State and County services or programs. Locate resources at the State and County level by clicking "Emergency Services, by State" from the link above.

U.S. Small Business Administration

The Small Business Administration (SBA) is the primary source of federal funds for long-term recovery assistance for disaster victims. The SBA has low-interest disaster loans for homeowners, renters and non-farm businesses to cover disaster damage to real and personal property. To find out where the SBA disaster offices are located an applicant can call the SBA toll-free at (800) 659-2955.

The Employee Assistance Program (EAP) provides no-cost counseling, resources and referrals. To contact the EAP, please call ESPŶR at (866) 570-3478 or securely request services from the website: www.espyr.com your password is: coadv